From the Crown

Greetings and gratitude to all!

With the days of winter behind us, spring has blossomed with the richness of flowers and green grasses. The leaves of the trees are green and the water flows in our rivers. Let's flourish and revel now, and throughout the summer, with continued growth in the forests and grasslands of the Outlands. As the snow has gone and the rains now fall, our days as your Crown are at an end. The campaign of battle and the travel throughout our lands has taken their toil on Ourselves, and we now prepare for the ascension of Our Heirs to govern you. Please join us for Our final court in Dragonsspine and rejoice that We have left a strong Outlands behind Us.

Without the aid and assistance of the many people who have served in Our Royal House, We would not have enjoyed Ourselves so much in the last 8 months. We thank everyone for their travel, maintenance and upkeep of the household goods, for clothing and feeding Us, greeting Us with a cheerful smile and opening their hearts in support.

The events We have attended have been joyous, and we thank all autocrats, cooks and crews for bringing them to all. The gifts we have received as Crown, the largess that was presented for others, and the entertainers we have encountered have all been a mere portion of the wealth of the glorious Outlands. We are indeed rich in knowing the talent and skills of our people.

Although We age and will fade from site, We know that the people are the backbone of Our Kingdom. We have been graced to serve. Know that the people will remain strong and at the ready to defend Our land and ideals.

Jaxarticus

Kathryn

From the Crown Prince and Princess

Warmest Greetings from Irel and Rosalind unto the the good populace of the Outlands,

We wish to thank Their Royal Majesties. Jaxarticus and Kathryn. They have made our tenure as Prince and Princess a most joyous experience. We would also like to thank all of those fine gentles who have offered their services to us. It warms Our hearts to see the dedication and generosity of the fine populace of Our fair kingdom.

As Coronation is fast upon Us and We would let all know of the tournaments and events We have planed therein. Her Highness invites all authorized fighter and fencers to enter Her champions tournaments. The Queen's Champions list will be on Saturday with the Protector of the Queens Heart following peers' circles on Sunday. We look forward to seeing all of the competitors embody the best in honor and chivalry in respect of the new queen. We would also like to meet with the Kingdom Officers and Barons and Baronesses who are able to attend on Saturday after the tournament.

We will be traveling to many far lands during the coming months. We encourage all that may, to join Us in Our travels to Northshield for Quest for Camelot, and the kingdoms of Artemesia for Uprising, Calontir for Lillies War and the East for Pennsic. We feel that these interactions with other realms are both important and enriching as well as enjoyable for all. We ask all of the fine artisans to gift us with their wares as they are able so that We may spread their glory and their arts throughout the known world.

We also ask that the great bards of the kingdom make preparations for the upcoming Windhover Bard competitions. Lady Savia the Silent will be coordinating the preparatory competitions with the finals and investiture of the new bard to be at Crown Tournament in the Fall. We feel that the bardic tradition in Our lands is going strong and look forward to encouraging it to even greater heights.

Archers string your bows and ready your arrows, for the Royal Archer competitions will be held at both Grand Outlandish in the south and Crossroads in the north. Both lists will be held on the Sunday morning of each event.

In efforts to make award recommendations an easier process We have asked Robert of Deerbourne to produce an online award recommendation form that is accessible from the Outlands Website. You can find this at http://www.caerthe.org/awardrec/awardrec.html We hope that this will encourage all to illuminate to Us those that are worthy of recognition. Your testimonial is vital as is not possible that We can know every individual or their noteworthy accomplishments.

By the time this missive reaches you Baron Timothy will have announced his intention to step down as Baron of Our fair Barony of Dragonsspine. It is Our desire to hold a polling on June 3rd at the Dragonsspine fighter practice site, and to invest the new baron and baroness at Barons War on the 1-3rd of August. We thank Timothy for his time and dedication to the barony. If you are interested in serving Dragonsspine,and hence the Outlands, in this manner please make your interest known to Us and the Kingdom Seneschal, Master Adam, by May 27.

We look forward to meeting all of those new faces throughout the realm as well as reacquainting Ourselves with all those friends of old.

Come One, Come All!

Great Populace of the Kingdom of the Outlands, please join us for the 2nd annual combination of the Barony of Dragonsspine and Shire of Aarquelle's quest for champions.

We shall have 2 tournaments in each of the martial pursuits, Heavy Combat, Rapier Combat, and Target Archery. 10th Annual Royal Archer Competition

Their Majesties, King Jaxarticus and Queen Kathryn, Their Royal Highnesses, Prince Irel and Princess Rosalind, and our current Royal Archer, THL Ian Lindsey MacRae, invite all Outlands Archers to participate in this year's Royal Archer Competition.

Each year a Royal Archer is selected from among those Outlands archers who attend the Royal Archer competitions and qualify for participation. The Royal Archer stands at Their Majesties' sides throughout the year representing the archers of the Outlands and protecting the Crown. The competition is held once per year at Grand Outlandish and Crossroads. Duties beyond that are at Their Majesties' whim and request.

The yearly competition for the Royal Archer draws near. To enter this competition, you must be at least Yeoman ranked. To achieve Yeoman rank, you must be shooting a three-round average of 45 points in the Royal Round except for Memorial Day weekend. If you are not sure of your current rank, check the listing on the Archer General Web site: http://www.pcisys.net/~lyssa/outlands/archgen.html. The organizers will also have a listing of currently eligible archers on site. This is the one time of year you may achieve Yeoman ranking with a single Royal Round score of 45 points. You must be ranked Bowman to enter the Qualifying Rounds. The Qualifying Rounds are shot according to the regular Royal Round rules which allow a practice end of 6 arrows to be shot at each of the three distances or the use of two ranging arrows before shooting the static round at each distance. The competition itself, which is for all archers of Yeoman rank or higher and those who shot 45 or better in the qualifying rounds, will be held the following day. You must be present at Grand Outlandish or the Royal Archer Northern Competition, being held at the Crossroads event at Pawnee National Grasslands, to participate in the competition. The Royal Archer competition consists of one static round of 6 arrows and one-30 second speed round at each of 20, 30 and 40 yards. There will be no practice ends or ranging arrows during the actual competition. Practice will be allowed before the competition begins. Come early. It is each archer's responsibility to arrive before the lists close. Any archer arriving late may watch but will not be allowed to enter the competition once it has begun.

Qualifying rounds will be held on Saturday, May 25th, 2003. The Royal Archer Competition will be held on Sunday, May 24th, 2003, at 10:00 am at both locations. Delays may be announced at Their Majesties' pleasure to accommodate their schedule. Check the schedule at Grand Outlandish or Crossroads for the time of the Qualifying Rounds. The victor of the Royal Archer Competition will be announced in Sunday evening's court at both events. If the victor and the current Royal Archer are at the same event, a transfer of regalia shall take place at that time. If the victor and current Royal Archer are at separate events, the regalia shall be returned to the Crown who will coordinate the transfer at a convenient time.

Mavis' Prize Tourney II

The Shire of Plattefordham, June 21, A.S. XXXVIII (2003)

Casper, Wyoming
Site Fee: $3 members, $6 non-members, 12 and under Free
Autocrat: Lady Mavis Reynebaud of Falcon's Keep
(Joy Marsh) 229 E. Lathrop Rd. # 141, Evansville, WY 82636
Phone: 307-237-1795, E-mail: mavisr@alluretech.net

The folk of Plattefordham once again invite their friends to come and play. Also, the tenure of Mavis' Champion will soon expire and it is time to select another. This means it is time for Mavis' Prize Tourney.

The prizes this year will, again, be a set of made-to-measure field garb for the winner of Plattefordham's Tourney and for Mavis' Champion.

The winners this year will be selected on the following basis:

Points will be given for bringing someone new or someone who hasn't played in a while.

Points will be given for first, second, and third place in the Arts & Sciences Competition. Documentation should include: what the item is, when, where, and how it was used; how similar or different your article is from what would have been in Period, and why.

Points will be given for winning in Fighting Scenarios. There will be events for heavy weapons and for fencing.

In the event of a tie, the final winners will be selected on the basis of populace choice of original tales of romance, swashing, and buckling.

Site opens at 10am and closes at 7pm. Dinner will be a potluck with Plattefordham supplying desserts. At least one grill will be available. We will make sure there are hot dogs and hamburgers to go around.

The Site is Mike Sedar Park at the corner of College and Poplar.

From North or South, take I-25 to the Poplar St. Exit. Turn South (toward the mountain) off the exit ramp and proceed South until you see the Park on your left. There are Port-a-johns on site. The site is DRY and pets must be on leashes not only by law but for their own safety. It is wise to bring your own non-alcoholic beverages since there is only a small water fountain on the other side of the Park.

Master Abelard writes: Dear Chronicler, what is your favourite Latin construction?

Dear Abe: The passive subjunctive of cautious assertion. Why on earth do you ask?

M'Lady Morgan of Kent writes: Dear Chronicler, can I have a little extra time after the publication deadline to get my article to you?

Dear Morgan: No. Generally speaking, I am not flexible on this matter. If you happen to be the Crown you can have an extra day, and if you happen to be my girlfriend you can have till the third. But I can't be more flexible than that. It's a matter of publication date, when I have to get layout complete so I can get the issue to the printers in time to get it in the mail. Generally, my schedule is: In Layout on the 2nd, to the printers by the 5th, back from the printers by the 15th, and in the mail by the 20th. So you see, adding to the layout on the 3rd or 4th is not actually a workable proposition. Sorry!

Hob of Mann writes: Dear Chronicler, can my event article be longer than a half page?

Dear Hob: Sure, if it's the month of the event itself! I've been flexible on this point but this issue is a pretty good example of what happens when I let that slip - lots of pages 3/4 full and a lot of white space. Beginning next month, if your article is for an event that's not happening the month of publication and longer than half a page, prepare to be edited. I don't mean to be an ogre, I just have to try to keep waste down.

Got a question for the Chronicler? Send it to chronicler@outlands.org!

From the Earl Marshal

Greetings Outlanders,

The sun shines brightly throughout the Outlands! Warm months have come and the tourney season is upon us all. Greet these days with open arms and revel in the long days of combat ahead.

There is a new Outlands Fighters Handbook and authorization process that is, or will be, available shortly. Fighters, marshals, MOL's, populace one and all please make note of these changes as they become available. We have attempted to decrease the wording in the Outlands Fighters Handbook in those areas that are defined under the SCA Combat Handbook. You will still need to know the rules of combat under the SCA and the Outlands, there's just less double wording.

The authorization process has changed considerably. Please make special note of these changes for new fighters, as well as re-authorizing current fighters. This process will require new fighters to be much more knowledgeable with the rules and participate in a process before authorizing. Current fighters re-authorizing will also need to familiarize themselves with the rules prior to getting a new green card. This is an attempt to standardize the authorization process across the Kingdom. Please do your part to follow the procedures and learn the rules.

The Outlands engages with kingdoms that have some different rules for weapons. If you are going to an event in another kingdom, please make sure your weapons will meet their rules. Calontir requires padded glaives, for example. Artemesia and Northshield allow 12 foot spears.

On that end, the Outlands will allow for training with 12 foot fiberglass spears, ONLY FOR EVENTS WITH OTHER KINGDOMS THAT PERMIT 12 FOOT FIBERGLASS SPEARS. Herein are the rules: when using a 12 foot spear at practice, the fighter must inform the knight marshal of the intent to use the 12 foot spear. The knight marshal will decide if the fighter is competent to use this weapon. The fighter must also inform the fighters present that a 12 foot spear is being used on the field. DIRECTED TOUCH must be enforced to ensure safety.

Enjoy the month of May and the wonderful events that await. Please feel free to seek me out at events and contact me for information or to help with questions.

As always, be safe.

Lavan

From the Windhover Bard

Greetings do I send unto all Outlanders, may your lives be long and joyous!

The evenings grow warmer, my friends. Winter's chill ebbs, only to be replaced by the desire for friends, fires, and song. As summer hastens towards us, there is much fun to be had around bardic fires at upcoming events, and my heart longs to see your faces. At Coronation, we will mourn the passing of our King and Queen, Jaxarticus and Kathryn, as we celebrate the coming of their heirs, Prince Irel and Princess Rosalind. At Outlandish, the mighty Barony of al-Barran will be hosting a bardic to entertain, enlighten, and fuel our dreams for the coming summer, and the College of St. Golias will again bring us a bardic such as only they are capable. Come July, the search for my successor will begin. The summer months promise to hold much to keep our hearts and souls kindled with the memories, and I ask that all of you join me in their making.

Yours in service and in song,

Lady Savya the Silent

From the Kingdom Minister of Lists

As we move into these summer months, we also find the fighting fields sending out their siren call, beckoning us to come play! At the edge of the field, you will see someone with a pencil or pen, compiling a list of competitors. That person is your gateway to the field of battle.

Are you to be the victor for the day? Your membership and authorization card are your entry to a field of chivalrous acts, exciting victories, and glorious deaths. Without them, you will be turned away to watch these deeds from the sidelines.

Before you find that your cards have expired, renew that membership (usually takes a couple of months for Corporate to return the cards) and find an authorizing marshal to update your authorizations.

There are currently OPEN POSITIONS in Dragonsspine,Unser Haufen and Bo Fharrach for Minister of the Lists. If you are interested in having the best seat in the house for a tourney and providing a valuable service for your Barony or local group, please contact your local seneschal or myself.

You can find tourney reporting forms, authorization reports, and various other helpful links at the Minister of the Lists web pages located by entering the Kingdom Officers web page, http://www.outlands.org/officers.html, and clicking on the Minister of the Lists link.

Regards,

Sevilia

From the Minister of Children

Attention Parents, Youth, Artisans, Bards, and all other Good Gentles of the Mighty Outlands,

We have been invited to join in the fun at the Kingdom of Atenveldt's Youth Collegium IV (also being called the 1st Knowne World Inter-Kingdom Youth Collegium). The event is to be held over the extended holiday weekend of July 3-7th. This Inter-Kingdom event is centered solely on youth - oriented activities. This will be a fun family event. Youth Activities will include: Wet and wild water "combat," youth fighting geared toward training, safety equipment and weaponry use, carding wool and drop spindle demonstration, weaving, leatherworks, Bardic competitions, feast preparation, hikes and lectures comparing European architecture with Native American ruins (the site has Navajo ancestral ruins that date back to 1325). Every one is encouraged to join in and enjoy the activities, possibly try your hand at learning a new skill. The event will be topped off by a pancake breakfast on Sunday! We are asking for adult volunteers to teach classes. So, if you have a skill that you would like to pass on to the future of the SCA, please contact either myself or the Arts & Sciences Liaison. The site for this event will be Lyman Lake State Park, just over the AZ border. The site amenities include: 76 developed camp sites each with its own ramada, picnic table, fire ring and grill, 5 RV pull through sites with electricity and water hook ups, and 7 dry RV sites, plus the entire beach area for camping. There is potable water, flush toilets, hot showers, did I mention showers, swimming in the lake, on - site store, guided trail hikes, petroglyphs, and cave excavations offered as site attractions. As a bonus, the park hosts a huge two hour fireworks display on the 4th of July from an Island on the Lake. More information on Lyman Lake State Park can be found at http://www.pr.state.az.us/parkhtml/lyman.html. I have been told by the autocrat that they will have a website up and running very soon now - I will post the URL to the Outlands List and to all of my Ministers of Children as soon as the site is up. From the Kingdom Scribe

Warm Outlandish Greetings to all who come by these letters,

Kudos and Thank you to the Autocrat and everyone who made Heralds & Scribes Symposium such a great success. Heartfelt thanks as well to all the scribes who entered the Backscroll and Promissory AoA competitions. All the scrolls were beautiful, including the rune-stamped belt promissory AoA!

There are some changes to my office that I would like to inform you about. First, the scribes web page has a new URL: http://www.scriptorium.us. Please stop by and visit. I encourage everyone interested in the scribal arts to join our scribes list -- there is a handy subscription box on our web site. Second, here are some changes and additions to my office staff: Lady Meadhbh of Hawks Hollow was recently added as a northern area deputy. After many years of dedicated service to the Scribes Office, Mistress Cailte has stepped down as southern deputy. I am pleased to introduce Mistress Bennet Murray who has graciously agreed to become my Southern Deputy. Countess Cainnleach is my newest Liaison for the Dragonsspine/Aarquelle groups and THL Aldhicinna will fill the vacancy created by Mistress Rosalind after becoming Crown Princess. Please welcome these Ladies and seek their assistance if you have any scribal questions. They are here to serve you. Last but not least, I have a new phone number and email address (provided below). Please update your address books as necessary.

From the Archer General

Greetings Archers!

I apologize for the infrequency of my OH letters. I would like to thank all the archers for their incredible work and support at this past Estrella War. The Atenveldt and Outlands volunteers successfully set up the archery ranges a day and a half ahead of schedule so that archery could be held on Wednesday and Thursday, enabling the Aten archers to enjoy a relaxing time on the ranges. Wednesday's archery was a tremendous success. His Majesty Jax participated and was reported to have enjoyed himself in this more leisurely pasttime. Due to the downpour, Thursday's activities had to be postponed until Sunday and the ranges reset to preserve the field. Despite the downpour, archery continued on schedule on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. I would like to thank Baron Knut Eldfimr and THL Lêofsige O Caoimh known as Lyssa for their invaluable assistance during setup and throughout the weekend. Thanks as well to THL Angus Montgomery the Forrester for organizing and running three prize shoots. Thanks to Lord Mordrake for coordinating Combat Archery and helping to inspire combat archers. And finally thanks to Her Majesty Kathryn who, as archery treaty council member, worked diligently and inexhaustibly to ensure archery would be well planned and organized within the treaty itself.

At Outlandish, we will again hold an archers' gathering to allow everyone interested in archery to meet their fellow archers, discuss ideas, problems, dreams, and hopes for archery within the Outlands. Please see me on - site for details on the time and date. The location should be my encampment. I will encourage the archers in attendance at Crossroads to hold a similar gathering.

Also at Outlandish and Crossroads, we will be holding the 10th Annual Royal Archer Competition. Please see the article elsewhere in this issue. The rules are the same as in previous years. Yeoman ranked archers and above who are current members of the SCA may enter the competitions on Sunday, May 25, at 10 am or at the convenience of the Crown. Bowman ranked archers who are current members of the SCA may participate in the Qualifications on Saturday May 24. Time for the qualifications will be at the convenience of the archers in charge. Please remember that entrants will be serving Their Majesties for a period of one year and will be representatives of the archers and the kingdom. Basic duties include standing in court. Additional duties are at the whim and needs of the Crown. Our current Royal Archer is THL Ian Lindsey McRae.

Thank you,
THL Larke

From the Board of Directors:

The following is a proposed addition to the Corporate Policies of the SCA, Inc. The current Policy on Electronic Communications was adopted by the Board many years ago, but was never inserted into the appropriate Governing Document. This revised policy replaces the existing policy entirely, and would be inserted as Section X of the Corporate Policies document, renumbering the current section X to section XI. The rationale for the revision is that the current Policy on Electronic Communications is seriously outdated, considering how the world of electronic communication has changed in the approximately 15 years since the policy was written. Further, because the policy was never incorporated into the SCA Governing Documents, its existence has not been widely known.

Your commentary is requested! Please send to:

Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. PO Box 360789 Milpitas, CA 95036-0789

or electronically to: comments@sca.org.

Due date for commentary is July 1, 2003.

Policy on Electronic Communications (SCA Corporate Policies X)

1. Electronic Publication of SCA Documents
   When official corporate documents are published electronically on a site not sponsored by the SCA, Inc., the original copyright notice for the document must be provided along with the text.The following addition should be made to the copyright notice:
   "In cases of conflict, the governing version of this document is (title of document), copyright (date) by the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., and obtainable in printed form from the SCA Stock Clerk, P.O. Box 360789, Milpitas CA95036.Disputes over the contents of this document will be decided in favor of the printed version available from the SCA, Inc."

2. Participation of SCA Officials in Electronic Communications Media
   The SCA Inc. neither prohibits nor requires members' or officers' participation in electronic communications media such as newsgroups or mailing lists. Unless otherwise stated as a prerequisite of office, electronic communication is not required of any officer.Paper copies are always acceptable, and are the default means for official correspondence.

3. Electronic Communications to and from SCA Officers
   A.Messages posted for general attention on any public electronic communications forum are not regarded as formal communications to an officer, whether or not that officer is known to participate on the forum in question. B. Any policies or procedures governing the handling of correspondence, such as the maintenance of file copies for correspondence with lasting effect, apply equally to electronic mail.

C.SCA officers must be careful to distinguish between their personal opinions and official statements or policies of their office in electronic communications.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A June event MUST run in the June OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Does anyone read this stuff? An ounce of silver to the first person to tell me (Max) they've seen this part. No I'm not kidding. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
